The SPEECH of His Excellency LEWIS MORRIS, Eſq; Captain General and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Jerſey, &c.

To the HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES of the ſaid Province, on Thurſday, March 15. 1738,9.

GENTLEMEN,

I SHOULD have been very glad, if this firſt Seſſion of the General Aſſembly of New-Jerſey, under a ſeparate Governor, had better anſwered the great Hopes entertained by the Inhabitants on their Meeting, and the general Expectation of the neighbouring Provinces of the Reſult of their Conſultations. What has been the Iſſue of them our Enemies will tell with Exultation, and our Friends with Bluſhing and Reluctance hear. It muſt be own'd, that the Governor, neither directly nor indirectly, meddled in their Elections, being out of the Province at that Time, to avoid giving any room for the leaſt Umbrage of Suſpicion on that Head: It is alſo known to all, that this has been the longeſt uninterrupted Seſſion, and moſt expenſive to the Publick, that ever was known in Jerſey: But, alas! what Laws has it produced for the Benefit of the Inhabitants, or Advantage of the Crown, worthy of the Expence of Time and Money that has been employed about them, which might not, by a Number of Men ſuitably diſpoſed and ſolicitous for the publick Good, have been done in a Week or a Fortnight at moſt? As you too well know what has been the Reaſon of theſe ſo wonderfully ſlow and expenſive Proceedings to ſo little purpoſe, ſo, in Juſtice to your Country, as well as to yourſelves, they ought to be made publick; that ſuch among you, who made it their Buſineſs to obſtruct and defeat the Endeavours for the general Good, may not have a ſecond Opportunity of doing the like; or if re-choſen, that the Blame may be juſtly transferred to their Conſtituents; who then will be ſuppoſed to approve of their paſt Conduct, and to elect them a ſecond Time, to give them an Opportunity of perſiſting in it (if poſſible) with greater Aſſurance. But, until I ſee that done, I ſhall hardly believe them capable of being infatuated to ſo great a Degree; becauſe, if I am not very much miſ-informed, the generality of the Inhabitants highly diſapprove of the Conduct of ſome of their Repreſentatives; and have more than once, ſent Me ages to them (tho' without effect) to let them know it.

THE extraordinary ſlow and dilatory Proceedings on the Bill for the Support of the Government, was matter of admiration to all Men of Honour and Sincerity, who heartily wiſh'd well to the preſent Separation and Proſperity of this Province; and many of you very well know by what vile Crafts and unbecoming Arts the ignorant Dupes to the Enemies of it have been wrought upon to obſtruct it; I wiſh I could not ſay, with too much Succeſs.

ON this Occaſion I ought not, nay, I cannot omit giving my Thanks to thoſe worthy Gentlemen in your Houſe, deſervedly to be eſteemed and ſtiled The Friends of the Government, by whoſe conſtant Application, Diligence, and unwearied Endeavours, the Application of the Money heretofore raiſed for the Support of Government has been brought the length it is now carried, againſt ſo many open Efforts and ſecret inſincere Attempts to defeat it. I wiſh I could with any Truth ſay, it is ſo ample, as from the publick Promiſes and Addreſſes made to his Majeſty, and the Circumſtances of the Province, was reaſonably expected, or the nature of the Thing required: The Proviſion for the Officers of the Government being too ſcanty for the Services required, ſome neceſſary Officers wholly neglected, and no Proviſion made for Incidental Charges, that upon many Occaſions and Emergencies will be neceſſary to be expended, and without which no Government can be maintained and and ſupported; but it being the greateſt Application the Friends of the Government and their Country (as is ſaid) were able to procure at this Juncture, when no means were left uneſſayed to render their honeſt Endeavours totally ineffectual: Leſt therefore their Oppoſers ſhould triumph in being ſucceſsfully Miſchievous in doing ſo, I gratefully accept of what is done, not as being ſufficient, but as an Earneſt of what ought to be, and hat I hope will be done, when the Enemies of our happy Conſtitution and preſent Settlement, have it leſs in their Power, and (if poſſible) leſs in their Inclinations, to ſucceed in Attempts againſt it; and the Friends of it more Knowledge and Stability than to be influenced by them.

AND here I muſt not decline expreſſing my great Concern, for the Difference lately ariſen between the Two Branches of the Legiſlature, the Council and Aſſembly; not about the Amendment of a Money-Bill, the Donation of which firſt aroſe in the Aſſembly, and which (by the King's Letters Patent, the only Thing that eſtabliſhes the Conſtitution of Government here, and gives the Power of making Laws of any kind) the Council think themſelves entituled to amend if there be Occaſion, as much as to amend, or propoſe any other Bill; but, about a Conference deſired by the Council, upon the ſub-

ed Matter of a Bill, made for the Application of Money already rais'd, and paid into the Treasury; and by the Acts that raise it (which have had the Royal Assent) appointed to be dispos'd of to and for the Support of Government, in such sort, manner and form, as by the Governor, Council and General Assembly shall be directed. This Matter you not only refused to confer upon; but notwithstanding that by those Acts an equal Power with yourselves was given to the Council, to direct in the Disposition of that Money, you wholly exclude them from any Directions in that Matter; declaring it to be your opinion, That it cou'd neither be for the Interest of the Province, nor consistent with the Privileges of your House to ADMIT (mind and remember the Word) of any Alteration to be made therein: That is, in other Words, You, by the Plenitude of a Power you thought fit to assume to yourselves, with an unconquerable and unalterable Resolution to adhere to it, will not admit the Council to do, what by the Laws now in Force with Relation to that Matter, they are as much impower'd to do as yourselves.

I SHALL be very sorry for their sakes, as well as the Publick, if any of the Friends of the Government, and present Settlement (of whose hearty endeavours for the Publick Service I had conceiv'd so favourable an Opinion) have by too great a Zeal for imaginary Privileges, destitute of Law or Reason to support them, and inconsistent with the Constitution, been unwarily led into a Declaration, and Practice of so dangerous a Tendency, and without any Example (that I know of) to support it, but a very bad one.

HOW pleased should I have been, if this unaccountable Difference, so big with dangerous Consequences to the publick Safety, and well-being of this Province, had not at this time happened; but since it has, the Duty of my Station obliges me to lay this whole Affair before his Majesty, who can best judge of this Matter, and how agreeable the Conduct of the present Assemby has been to the publick Addresses made to Him; and to what might on this Occasion have been expected from them, in return for the Favour of a separate Governor granted them; as the People will, how well they have used the great Time and Opportunity given them (at so great a Charge to the Publick) of being serviceable to their Country; which I should have been glad, I could with Truth say, had been employed so much for the Advantage of the Inhabitants of this Province, as ought to have been done on this occasion; or, as might have been done at a much less Expence of Time and Money, by Men better agreeing among themselves.

IT has been long since observed by a very learned Man, That Parliaments do not succeed well in five Cases. Which Observation repeated Experience has confirmed to be true. To omit the rest, the third of these Cases, is, When there is no good Correspondence between the Lords and Commons: The fourth, When there is no Unity and good Agreement between the Commons themselves.

IF it may be admitted to compare small Things with great, it is but too evident, that there is far from a good Correspondence at present, between the Council and Assembly, or any likelyhood of there ever being so while the Assembly consists of the same Members it doth at this Time, their Difference being upon a point so essential to the Constitution of this Government, that the Council cannot, consistent with their Duties, give up. And unless the Time of this long and expensive Sessions has been consum'd in acting a grave Farce, in order to convince me with how great difficulty an Assembly is to be prevailed upon, to raise any Support for the Government, or even to consent to the Application of it to that purpose, tho' formerly rais'd for that End, and now in the Treasury; it is but too notorious, that during the sitting of this Assembly, there has been no Unity and good Agreement among themselves; nor doth their appear any likelihood of there being any such Agreement as there ought to be for the future; or that a second Session of the same Men, will prove more advantageous to the Publick, than this first very long one has done.

I DO THEREFORE, by Virtue of the Powers and Authorities given unto me by his Majesty, by his Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, dissolve this present General Assembly, and they are accordingly now dissolved.

LEWIS MORRIS.

NEW-YORK, April 9.

To the Honourable GEORGE CLARKE, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Colony of New-York.

The humble ADDRESS of the General Assembly of the said Colony.

May it please your Honour,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the general Assembly of this Colony, do with Hearts full of Joy, sincerely congratulate your Honour on the Birth of a Prince, of his Majesty's Royal House, as an Event very propitious for the British Nation in general.

We embrace this Opportunity to assure you, that the several Matters recommended to us by your Honour, shall in the course of our Proceedings, be maturely considered, and have their due Weight, adequate to the reasonableness of the Things, and to the Circumstances of the Colony.

We conceive it our indispensible Duty, on the other head, to preserve the Credit, and to promote the Welfare of the Colony; and do flatter ourselves, that the the Bills we shall in the mean while prepare for these purposes, will receive the Assent of your Honour, who has so considerable an Interest in the Country.

We were in no small Hopes, from the Declaration your Honour had been pleased to make the late Assembly, that the Act for the frequent Elections of the Representatives, would have received the Royal Assent; and tho' you have acquainted us, that his Majesty has thought fit to disapprove thereof, we flatter ourselves that if a new Act was prepared for that purpose, agreeable to the Laws of Great Britain, his Majesty would be graciously pleased to approve of it.

As for our parts, we are met with a real Disposition to discharge our Duty, as well for the Good and Benefit of the Colony, as for the Service of his Majesty.

To which the Governor returned the following

ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I Thank you for this Address, and am very glad to find you met with real Dispositions to consult His Majesty's Honour, and the true Interest of your Country, which are so blended as not to be separated by you, without Injury and Dishonour to the Province. You cannot take a surer Way to have your Laws approv'd, than by making them agreable to those of England; and you may be assur'd that I will use my best Endeavours to obtain His Majesty's Royal Approbation of them, and will do the Province all the Service which my Duty to His Majesty, and my Honour will allow me to do.

In the House of Representatives.

Resolved, Nemine Contradicente, That when a Question is put, and carried in the Affirmative or Negative, the Persons Names who Vote for or against it, be set down and published in the Votes.

NEW-

NEW-YORK, April 16.

To the Honourable GEORGE CLARKE, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-York, and the Territories thereon depending, &c.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Members of His Majesty's Council of the said Province.

May it please your Honour,

WE the Members of his Majesty's Council beg leave to return our Thanks for your Honour's Speech, and to congratulate with you, on the Birth of a Prince of his Majesty's Royal and illustrious House, an Event propitious to the Protestant Interest in general, and more especially to his Majesty's Dominions.

Your Honour's recommendation for passing a Law for the regulating and returning able and sufficient Jurors, is very seasonable, and the Matter itself absolutely necessary: We are sensible of the Advantages which must arise from such a Law; which being duly digested and built upon the Plan of the English Law, as agreeable thereto as the Circumstances of this Country will admit, the People of this Province will reap the Fruits of a permanent Security to their Lives, Liberties and Properties; for we are of Opinion with your Houour, such an Act should be perpetual.

We assure you, SIR, we shall most readily and chearfully concur in all Measures for the Advancement of his Majesty's Honour and Interest in this Government, and the Welfare and Prosperity of the Province.

To which ADDRESS His Honour was pleased to make the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I Thank you for this Address: I am fully perswaded of your Zeal for His Majesty's Honour and Service, and for the Welfare and Prosperity of the Province; and assure myself of your best Assistance, and hearty Endeavours for both, on all Occasions.
